

original yeoman, being of sound mind and disposing memory, Do make Publish and Declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby, ^{formerly} regretting all, such by me made.

I Give Devise and Bequeath all the Estate ^{Real} and Personal of which I shall die seized or entitled to unto John M^r. Donald of Michal, yeoman, and William Taylor of the same place, yeoman, as Trustees thereof, and appoint them as Executors of this my last Will and Testament on and Subject to the following Trusts;

To allow and give the use thereof to my wife Mary Heffernan during her natural life for ^{her} support and maintenance; And this proviso made as respects her, free of all Dower that she can claim in any of my estate.

After her decease to make sale of said Estate and divide the nett proceeds thereof after paying off my existing encumbrances thereon, between my following children, in equal parts. Patrick, Michael and Francis Heffernan, and my Daughters Susannah, Bridget Mary and Thabo.

If any die leaving Child or children the said shall inherit and receive the deceased parent's share.

I give power to my Executors and Trustees to anticipate the time of selling or disposing of my said Real and personal Estate prior to the decease of my said wife, with her consent, provided that in doing so they ~~shall~~ to safely secure to her during her life an equivalent for her support and maintenance which I have above provided to paid her. from my said Estate

Our Family History